Dear artist,

You will be exhibiting at the prestigious EuropArtFair on Saturday September 19th and Sunday September 20th 2026 at the MECC in Maastricht.

A large scale and professional fair like the EuropArtFair with international artists requires a smooth organization, which means that a good communication with you as a participant is very important. Therefore, you will receive information concerning your participation by e-mail, like this participants' guide.

Please read the information in this guide carefully.

If you have any questions after reading this guide, do not hesitate to contact us by e-mail info@europartfair.eu or by phone: +31 (0)475 79 40 03.

We wish you all the best with the preparations for the EuropArtFair and are looking forward to meeting you!

With kind regards,

Your stand

With your application you specified the size of your stand. You will be able to speak with and/or to hand-out folders to your visitors in the direct surroundings of your stand during the opening hours of the exhibition. The panels of your stand are 1 meter wide, 2,5 meters high and covered with black fabric. A limited number of other colours are available at an additional cost. The organization of the EuropArtFair will provide you with a nameplate for your stand.

During the days of the fair, the organization will provide you with a chair (see image to the right). Highchairs and a low or high table is NOT included but can be rented.

Folders, presentational books, business cards, etc. can be displayed on a table near the exhibited works. There is a maximum allowance of 1 table per participant. The table is provided with a black cloth.

Tables, chairs and spots of your own are, for the sake of keeping a harmonious overall appearance, not allowed. We offer the possibility to rent a table and spots through our organization.

You can hire a (high) table, power socket, bar stools, and (additional) spotlights, etc. via your online account:

<https://europartfair.eu/my-account/>

Your artwork, chair and (if applicable) table must remain within the boundaries of your stand at all times – on the one hand to maintain the professional and tidy appearance of the exhibition, but on the other hand also in accordance with fire safety regulations!

Frequently asked questions

Can I change my participation after registration?

Yes, if you wish to change your participation after registration, like the rent of more or less space, extra spots, a table or other options like a different coloured background. Any questions or wishes can be sent per e-mail to info@europartfair.eu.

When do I receive the entry tickets that are included with my participation?

You can order the entry tickets digitally by a link which will provide. You can enter the email addresses of your guests yourself or send the link to your guests. You can order one ticket per email address.

Is my work insured during the?

You order insurance on your registration form. If you have forgotten to do so, just send an email to info@europartfair.eu. If you choose to use this insurance, your works will be insured from the moment of set-up in the exhibition hall until the end of the display for the public of the fair.

Am I allowed to sell my work during the EuropArtFair?

Yes, you are. You can talk to passing visitors with the goal to inform them, interest them, and stimulate them to buy your works. (However please respect the freedom of the visitors to use the opportunity to look at your works for all the time they need). You can also hand-out business cards, or the post cards of the MEDIUM promotion package, etc. Furthermore, you can make appointments for follow-up contacts per e-mail, with those interested at home, at your atelier, studio or workshop, etc. Experience teaches us that if you make a lot of appointments the amount of sales after the fair is (significantly) higher than during the fair.

What if I sold one of my works?

If you sold your work and the buyer wishes to take it with him/her directly, you have to accompany the buyer until the exit. This is to prevent theft. You also fill in a sales form that you get from the organization on the day of the set-up and we will give you and the buyer a festive gift. It is up to yourself how you sell your work. You can send a bill to the buyer or he can pay instantly at our information desk. We will transfer the money after reduction of costs into your account. We will only charge you the costs that we owe the supplier. That is 1.8% per transaction and one-time € 3,- for the transfer to your IBAN.

Am I allowed to price my works on display?

Yes, you can do this on the provided stickers from the organization, but this may also be done on your own price tags/stickers.

Am I obliged to pay any commission to the organization?

No, you determine the prices yourself and you don't pay any commission to the organization.

Is there enough light in the exhibition space?

The definition of "enough" light is different for everyone. Some will perceive the amount of light as perfect, others as bright and still others as dark. We provide two to three spotlights per booth depending on the size of the booth. If you want to be sure of extra light, we recommend renting additional spotlights. Our recommendation is one floodlight per two meters of rear wall and one per side wall. Outside walls are not included in the price of the stand. The organization will send an offer in due time to artists with a stand with an outside wall.

Is it possible to rent (extra) spots during set-up?

Yes, on Friday, September 18 (or during the fair) you can still rent (extra) spots, but the number will be limited and there will be extra costs. We advise you to order extra spots prior to the fair. These will then be hanging when you come to set up.

Are there any guidelines I have to follow?

Yes, to ensure a good presentation of the works, there are some guidelines every participant needs to respect:

The participant is mainly free to decide which works he/she wants to exhibit. There are no restrictions concerning style, used materials and age. However, the following guidelines need to be followed by every participant:

The exhibited works need to be dry (paint/glue), cannot have any sharp objects, and need to be free of any toxic or otherwise dangerous substances. The exhibited works need to be ready to exhibit, that is to say framed (or spanned) and provided with a decent suspension system or, in case of a sculpture or 3-d objects, directly able to place.

Formats: the exhibited works can have a maximum height of 250 cm and the width and depth have to fit into your stand. Installations can only be exhibited if the setting-up of all the installations together takes no longer than 2,5 hours.

Art works cannot be hung one above the other and need to be hung next to each other with a distance of 10 cm in-between. This, so we can ensure a certain tranquillity in the overall presentation of the fair, on a professional level. Besides, 'less is more': try not to stuff your stand to full, but pursue a distinguished arrangement.

Am I supposed to be on my stand during the fair?

Yes, it is wished that you are at your stand during the opening hours of the fair. This way you can talk to interested visitors, buyers, etc., make appointments and sell your work.

When can I bring my work or have it delivered?

You can bring your work or have it delivered by courier on Friday, September 18, to the fair location. The fair will be built up on this day. To keep it orderly, you will be assigned a time block in which you must register or have the works delivered. Setting up your booth on a day other than Thursday or Friday is not possible.

To avoid problems with (late) delivery, you can also have your works sent to the organization's office. The organization will then take care of storage and transport to the location. Information about the costs can be requested at info@europartfair.eu.

Where can I park my car during the set-up?

See bottom of page 9.

I want to bring my work by van, where can I load and unload?

There are plenty of parking spaces at the MECC with no height restrictions.

Can I bring my own chair?

No, it is not allowed to bring your own (folding) chair. You will be provided with a chair by the organization. An extra chair can be rented on location.

Can I bring my own table?

No, the organization offers you the possibility to rent a table.

Can I bring a display cabinet for the presentation of small three-dimensional work?

Yes, for the presentation of small work (for instance: jewellery) you can bring a display cabinet. It cannot be higher than 250 cm and the width and depth have to fit into your stand.

Do I have to bring my own nails to hang my work?

No, you do not need to bring your own nails or screws. In fact, you are not allowed to use your own nails or screws. On the day of construction, the organization will provide you with sufficient screws that are specifically designed for the stand construction walls. PLEASE NOTE: you will need to bring your own electric screwdriver.

Can I bring "backup" work in case I sell my work?

Yes, you may. You may leave extra work in your car anyway at your own risk. If space is available at the location, you will be notified in a timely manner. It is not allowed to put 'back-up' work in your stand. This does not enhance the appearance of your stand or the fair.

Who decides if my work will be used for publicity?

You can control the different kinds of publicity for yourself, a lot. The organization decides which works will be published on the website, the entry tickets and/or with any other kinds of expressions. The organization will not charge you if any images of works are used by own initiative. Any form of discussion about the choices of the organization is not possible. There are certain ways of publicity, for which a contribution will be asked if you wish to be published in it. In that case you decide what to publish.

Will my name be corresponded on the stand?

Yes, the organization will take care of communicating the wished name on your stand.

Will there be an ATM nearby?

There is an ATM in the MECC.

Can art lovers pay for works of art with pin (bank card) or credit card?

Art lovers who want to pay for a work of art by pin (bank card), can use a mobile payment device of the organization. The amount will be transferred from the organization to the artist within a few days after the fair. We will only charge you the costs that we owe the supplier (3% of the total amount).

Do you have another question?

Send an e-mail to: info@europartfair.eu or call +31 475 794 003. We are happy to help. Clearly state that you are a participant of the EuropArtFair, so it will make it easier to help you.
